Jimmy and Lola noticed that, but they did not think too much. Today is Saturday, but the shop was even not full. They wonder what happened.

Sylvia: Plague doctors treated sick people during the Black Death.

Brian: What? Why would you dress up like a plague doctor?

Sylvia: Because their clothes are very scary.

Brian: Really? What did they wear?

Sylvia: They wore a long black robe, black hat, and long mask in the shape of a bird's beak.

Brian: What? A bird's beak mask? Why? What's it for?

Sylvia: They put flowers in their masks to hide the smell of the dead bodies around them to keep them from getting sick.

Brian: So... did the masks work?

Sylvia: Sadly, no. Even though the masks didn't work, the scary and strange image of the plague doctors can still be seen in some movies, video games and even at Halloween parties.
